

OYE,
¿NO TE
IRÁS?

NO,
NO DESEO
SER VISTA.
QUIERO
PERMANECER
AQUÍ.

¿VES AQUEL PAISAJE?

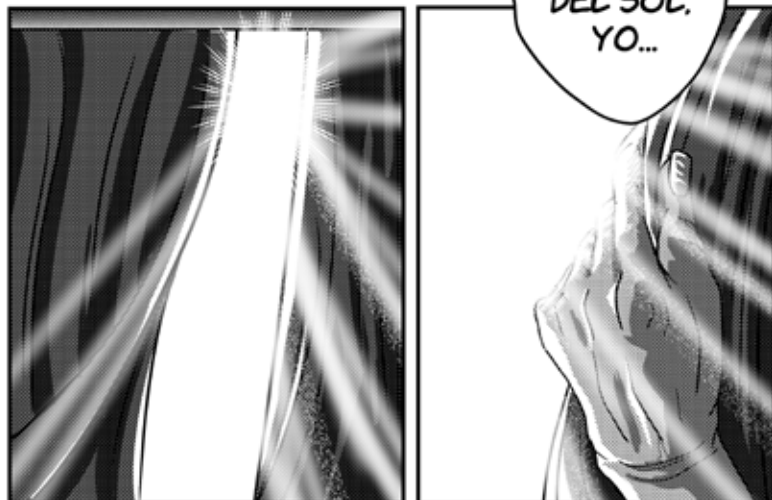

QUISIERA PODER CAMINAR
SOBRE ESE CÉSPED MAL PODADO
Y MIRAR DIRECTAMENTE AL SOL.

¿POR QUÉ
NO VAMOS
JUNTAS?

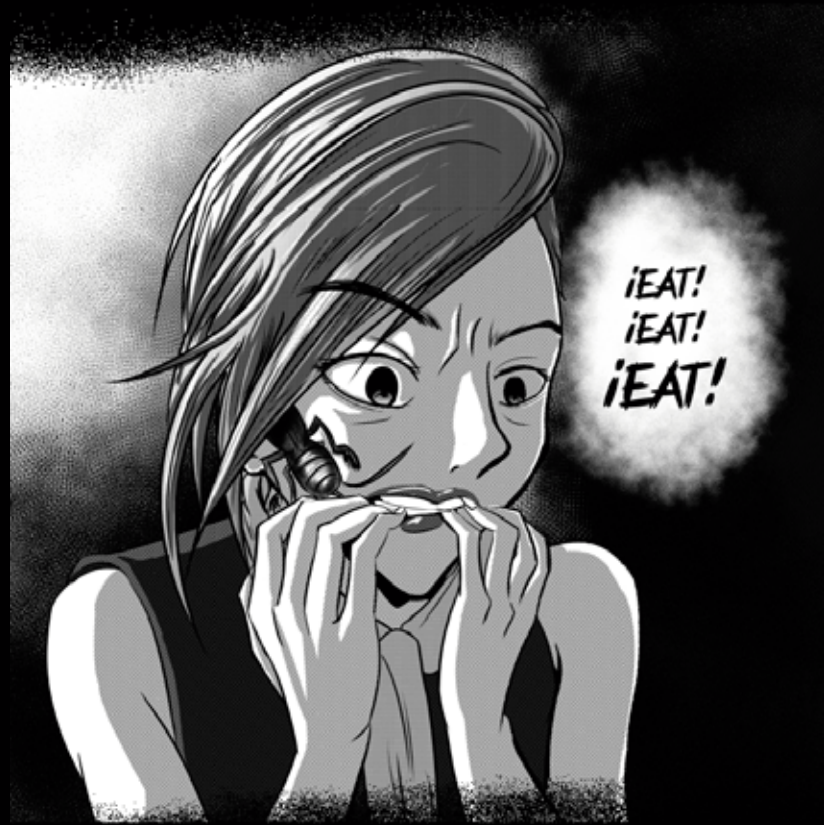

YO NO
PODRÍA IR.
SI SALGO
A LA LUZ
DEL SOL.
YO...

Next day, I went back to see my partner, with bandaged fingers, in her place of work without expression on her face, again I could see something that nobody else was paying attention to.

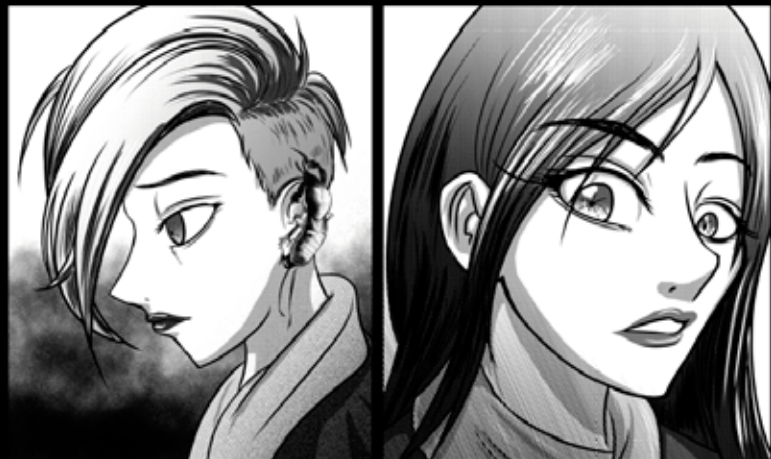

Now there were two insects trying to control their conscience. I looked anxiously at my hands and saw, more of those grotesque insects crawling up my fingers, reaching for my ears. That day I give up.

With my restless eyes the movements of my partner, I detected every day something strange that disoriented me for a few minutes.

I decided to get a little closer to see if he was okay, his behavior was not normal, he was not even sitting down resting...

Something similar to an insect, I was worried and wanted to warn her, but it seems that she can't feel it, as if it were part of her skin.
